From the President

We survived the holidays, but get ready for 2015's calendar. There will be numerous events the next few months. Look for the announcements for the upcoming Women's Club events, Mommy and Me Group activities, the Easter Egg Hunt and progressive dinner. The social committee will need houses to host the dinner. Please contact Lisa at social@elehoa.com if you want to volunteer.

The neighborhood is looking great due to the efforts of the grounds and tennis committees. To ensure the neighborhood continues to look its best, please remember to submit architectural requests before you begin your spring projects. I have seen several neighbors already working on their yards. If you see your neighbors outside in the yard, working on a project, or walking their dog, take a moment to say hello and get to know a new neighbor. Our community stands apart from other neighborhoods because we know each other and look out for one another. It takes each of us to continue making our neighborhood a great place to live. The ELE Board will continue to maintain the common grounds, organize great social activities, and make needed repairs to our amenities, but it is having wonderful people live here that makes this neighborhood feel like home.

I'm excited to hear about neighbors requesting to start a community garden and/or butterfly garden. If you are interested in donating your time, please let us know. Without continued neighbor involvement, these projects may never be realized.

2014 was a great year with National Night Out, other social events, and updating the pool and tennis courts. ELE is going to have an even better 2015!
